- III. 6:56 - Updates
 - A. Community Directory and Gift to Community-I had a zoom call with Scott Smallwood, Angela Nevins, Fran Stainback, and Terry Crutchfield on Thursday, March 21. Scott said he doesn't see why sending an email out about the directory would be a problem but wants to confirm with the board. Still haven't heard back. He liked the idea of gifting built in benches but needed to discuss it with the board. Still haven't heard back.
 - B. Yard Sale-This Saturday, April 20 from 10-3:00. We currently have approximately 40 homes signed up. The list will be emailed by Angela to the community either Wednesday or Thursday. It will also be posted on our Facebook Page and I love Highland Lakes Facebook page. You don't have to have your home listed to participate, just tie a balloon to your mailbox on Saturday if you decide to do it. King's home will have a donation truck at Highland Park from 2:30-4:30 for people to bring donations they may have after the yard sale. Residents can make arrangements for larger items to be picked up from their homes by texting Andre at 205-532-3175.
 - C. Thirsty Thursday-This Thursday, April 18 at 4 p.m. at La Paz in Mt. Laurel. If there is interest, we can continue to have Thirsty Thursdays all summer.
 - D. Member registration and dues for 2024-2025-Members can start signing up for 2024-2025 HLWC in the next couple of weeks. Everyone will be emailed the 2024-2025 registration form. We will also have registration available at the May meeting. Everyone who registers and pays on or before the May meeting will be enrolled in a special door prize raffle.
